

Indemnity to Principals

At You request and subject always to all of the other terms and conditions of this certificate, We will indemnify any principal with whom You have entered into an agreement so far as is necessary to meet the requirements of such agreement but only in respect of a claim brought against such principal by an unconnected third party and where the claim arose directly from services performed by You.